

THE WORLD WAS CHANGED FOREVER.

In the years that Jesus walked the earth, he faithfully revealed the good news about God and invited all who listened to follow him. Hundreds were healed, miracles took place, and impossible situations were turned around. Everywhere he went, people experienced the power of his life. Then, God's plan unfolded. Jesus was to die for all of creation, but that was just the beginning...

PALM SUNDAY

Palm Sunday signaled the coming of the promised Messiah. Israel had been awaiting this moment for hundreds of years. He did not come to overthrow with sword or hostility; his purpose was to lay down his life on our behalf.

GOOD FRIDAY

Eyewitnesses saw the brutal torture: his body bleeding on a cross. This very act became humanity's salvation. The death of Jesus on the cross signaled the fulfillment of God's promise to reverse the curse caused by sin and death.

RESURRECTION SUNDAY

God's redemptive plan was validated that morning. Jesus shattered the shackles of the grave and arose on a mission to heal our pain and win our hearts.

Jesus' sacrificial love restored our relationship with God. The same Spirit that raised Jesus from the dead can enter your heart and give you hope and a new life. This is what celebrating Easter is all about. Do you want to hear more about the hope of Easter? Visit your local church or go to
